Polychromiscape

January 11 – February 9, 2019

The elegant compositions in Polychromiscape invite you, the viewer, to explore personal connections to moments in nature. With vigorous brushwork and thick paint, nuanced gradations engender a sensuous, tangible quality to space, distance and atmosphere. Soft graphite is incorporated to depict features that punctuate the atmospheric spaces while fleeting effects of light evolve within a framework of predominantly geometric shapes. The carefully constructed paintings present you with visual structures that reveal unexpected aspects of the landscape and provide a sense of mass to atmosphere. Subtle shifts in color combined with the physical properties of paint propitiate the tension between surface and space. Polychromiscape provides an intimate exposure and poignant experience to contemporary landscape painting.
