JOHN BUCK

Born: Iowa, 1946

John Buck is both a sculptor and a printmaker. He works with two interrelated bodies of work: carved wood, assemblage and bronze sculptures, and large, multicolored woodblock prints.

John Buck received his BFA in sculpture from Kansas City Art Institute in 1968 and his MFA in sculpture from UC Davis in 1972. He taught sculpture at Gloucestershire College of Art and Design in Cheltenham, England; Humboldt State University in Arcata, California; and Montana State University in Bozeman, Montana.

John Buck lives in Montana and Hawaii. He has shown his woodcut and sculptures extensively throughout the US. He has created several major sculpture commissions and his work is in the collections of The Art Institute of Chicago, The Brooklyn Museum, The Museum of Modern Art, The San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, The Seattle Art Museum, The Library of Congress and many others.
